He states that this not only multiplies the harm by enabling the same infringing content to be viewed publicly and used for AI training, but also allows Defendants, including unknown uploaders, to commercially profit through YouTube's extensive monetisation mechanisms, such as advertising revenue, and other RPM/CPM-based earnings, which increases with higher viewership of the impugned videos, thereby infringing Plaintiff's publicity and personality rights.

Additionally, the Plaintiff has also got his personal/stage name and its variations registered as trademark under various classes.

49. On the basis of the assertions made in the plaint and perusal of documents filed on record, this Court is of the prima facie view that the Plaintiff is a well-known face in India who has gained immense goodwill and reputation over a course of a successful career and has acquired a celebrity status in India.

House2 , Anil Kapoor Vs. Simply Life India & Ors.3 , and Jaikishan Kaku Bhai Sarf Alias Jackie Shroff Vs. The Peppy store and Ors.4 there can be no dispute that this status inherently grants the Plaintiff proprietary rights over her personality and associated attributes.

51. Therefore, prima facie, the Plaintiff's personality traits and/or parts thereof, including the Plaintiff's name, likeness, voice, and image are protectable elements of the Plaintiff's personality rights. The Plaintiff is entitled to seek injunction against the use of his personality rights by third parties for selling merchandise for their commercial gains, without his authorisation. The URLs pertaining to Defendant Nos. 2, 3 and John Doe entities fall within this category. In view of the assertions of the Plaintiff, Defendant No. 1 is misrepresenting to the public with respect to its alleged association with the Plaintiff.

52. In addition, the Plaintiff is prima facie entitled to protect himself against morphed and distorted content created with the use of AI technology which portrays the Plaintiff in a repugnant manner, subjecting him to humiliation and ridicule. The Plaintiff is also prima facie entitled to protect himself against the circulation of morphed pornographic content and AI-generated images portraying him in obscene setting with other celebrities including female celebrities. The posts placed on record pertaining to Defendant Nos. 6, 8, 9, 10, 11 and John Doe entities fall within these categories.

53. The Plaintiff has furnished the list of URLs pertaining to his morphed photographs created with the use of AI technology posted by the unknown users of Defendant No. 13/X at serial no. 5, 6, 7 and 8 at pages 518 and 519 of MANU/DE/2043/2010 2023 SCC Online Del 6914 [Paragraph Nos. 38 to 40] This is a digitally signed order.

54. The balance of convenience lies in favour of the Plaintiff, and the continuing availability of the infringing content would cause irreparable injury to the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff has therefore, made out a case for ex-parte ad- interim injunction against the infringing Defendants; except the URLs/posts at pages 212 to 221, which will be taken up for consideration after the infringing Defendants have entered appearance.

55. It is pertinent to note that, the posts in the URLs mentioned from page nos. 212 to 221 (post 1) of the documents filed along with the plaint are prima facie neither indulging in commercialisation nor inappropriate or obscene. Therefore, this Court is of the opinion that before considering issuance of injunction order qua the said URLs, it would be apposite to hear the said Defendant No. 8 first. Accordingly, at present ex-parte stage, no directions for the take down are being issued against the URLs provided at page nos. 212 to 221 (post 1) of the documents filed along with the plaint. The rights and contentions of the Plaintiff are left open.

56. However, before issuing the ex-parte injunction, this Court notes that the AI generated images of the Plaintiff with other female celebrities uploaded by Defendant Nos. 8, 9 10 and 11 as well as anonymous users which as per the Plaintiff are in unsavoury and inappropriate scenarios and in some cases ex- facie obscene could have been reported to the concerned social media platform for take down in accordance with The Information Technology (Intermediary Guidelines and Digital Media Ethics Code) Rules 2021 ['IT Intermediary Rules'], as it is an efficacious remedy provided by the statute to a complainant 2024 SCC Online Del 3664.

(such as the Plaintiff) which is not only cost effective but also time sensitive. Some of the posts complained of would have been liable to be actioned as per Rule 3(2) of the IT Intermediary Rules. This Court notes that some of the posts of Defendant Nos. 8, 9, 10 and 11 which have been complained of date back to June 2025 and it would have been prudent for the plaintiff to avail the statutory mechanism which mandates the Grievance Officer to take action within 24 hours. This Court notes that however parties such as the plaintiff are approaching the Court directly without availing the statutory mechanism and are therefore negating the objective of IT Intermediary Rules. The intent of the statutory mechanism is to provide an effective remedial mechanism to the complainant as well as to reduce burden on the judicial system. Moreover, this Court observes that the social media intermediaries appearing in Court proceedings do not object to such complaints for taking down the unsavoury and inappropriate content. Therefore, it is clarified that if henceforth a complainant/plaintiff approaches the Court without availing the statutory mechanism provided under the IT Intermediary Rules, the said party may be held to be not entitled to an ex-parte ad-interim injunction, and the Court will direct the party to first avail its remedy under the aforesaid Rules. It is the obligation of the counsel to advise the litigant about this statutory remedy.

57. In the meantime, until the next date of hearing, following directions are hereby issued: -
